SUPREME COURT.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

CHRISTMAS VACATION.

THERE will be no sitting in Court or Chambers during the Christmas Vacation.

During the Christmas Vacation all applications "which may require to be immediately or promptly heard" are to be made to the Honourable Mr. Justice Irving, who will act as Vacation Judge, the Registrar arranging an appointment, if necessary.

Applications in urgent matters may also be made by post. In such case the application should be accompanied by an office copy of the affidavits in support of the application, and also, on a separate sheet of paper, by a draft of the order proposed.

On applications for injunction (in addition to the above) a copy of the writ and a certificate of writ issued must also be sent.

Papers sent to the Judge will be returned to the Registrar.

The address of the Vacation Judge can be obtained on application at the Registrar's office. de22

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF COMMONS, RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULES RELATIVE TO NOTICES FOR PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL applications to Parliament for Private Bills, of any nature whatsoever, shall be advertised by a Notice published in the Canada Gazette; such Notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and objects of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same; and when the application is for an act of incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the Notice. And if the works of any company (incorporated or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specifically mentioned in the Notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such Notice to be sent by registered letter to the Clerk of each municipality which may be specially affected by the construction or operation of such works, and also to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are, or may be located; and proof of compliance with this requirement by the applicants shall be established by statutory declaration.

In addition to the Notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar Notice shall also be published in some leading newspaper, as follows:—

A. When the application is for an Act to incorporate:

1. A Railway or Canal Company:—In the principal city, town, or village in each county through which the proposed railway or canal is to be constructed.

2. A Telegraph or Telephone Company:—In the principal city or town in each Province or Territory in which the company proposes to operate.

3. A company for the construction of any works which in their construction or operation might specially affect a particular locality; or for obtaining any exclusive rights or privileges; or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of others:—In the particular locality or localities which may be affected by the proposed Act.

4. A Banking Company; An Insurance Company; A Trust Company; A Loan Company; or an Industrial Company without any exclusive powers:—In the Canada Gazette only.

B. When the application is for the purpose of amending an existing Act:

1. For an extension of any line of railway, or of any canal, or for the construction of branches thereto:—In the principal city, town or village in each county or district through which such extension or branch is to be constructed.

2. For an extension of the time for the construction or completion of any line of railway, or of any canal, or of any telegraph or telephone line, or of any other works already authorised:—In the place where the head office of the company is, or is authorised to be.

3. For an extension of the powers of a company, (when not involving the granting of any exclusive rights); or for the increase or reduction of the capital stock of any company; or for increasing or altering its bonding or other borrowing powers, or for any amendment which would in any way affect the rights or interests of the shareholders or bondholders or creditors of the company:—In the place where the head office of the company is situated.

All such Notices, whether inserted in the Canada Gazette or in a newspaper, shall be published at least once a week, for a period of five consecutive weeks; and when published in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba, shall be in both the English and French languages; and marked copies of each issue of all newspapers containing such Notice shall be sent to the Clerks of the Senate and House of Commons, endorsed "Private Bill Notice"; or a statutory declaration as to due publication may be sent in lieu thereof.

RULES RELATING TO PETITIONS AND PRIVATE BILLS.

Any person seeking to obtain a Private Bill shall, at least eight days before the meeting of Parliament, deposit with the Clerk of the House, in which the Bill is to originate, a copy of such Bill in the English or French language, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same. The applicant shall also, after the second reading, and before the consideration of the Bill by any Committee, pay the Clerk of the Senate, or the Accountant of the House of Commons (as the case may be) a fee of $200, and a sum sufficient to pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes. The fee of $200 is paid only in the House in which the Bill originates; but charges for reprinting and translation are paid in the House in which such charges are incurred.

No petition for a Private Bill is received by the Senate or by the House of Commons after the first four weeks of the Session.

No Private Bill may be presented to the Senate or to the House of Commons after the first four weeks of the Session.

No Petition praying for the incorporation of a railway company, or of a canal company, or for an extension of the line of any existing or authorized railway or canal, shall be considered by the Standing Orders Committees, until there has been filed with the Committee a map or plan, showing the proposed location of the works, and each county or district through which the proposed railway or canal, or any branch or extension thereof, is to be constructed.

SAML. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,
Clerk of the Senate.

THOS. B. FLINT,
Clerk of the House of Commons.

SPECIAL RULE OF THE SENATE.

When any Bill confirming a deed, lease, agreement or other instrument, is brought up or presented to the Senate, such deed, lease, agreement or other instrument shall be set forth in the Bill by way of Schedule or otherwise.

SAML. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,

ADDITIONAL RULES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS RESPECTING PRIVATE BILLS.

All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bill:—Bills not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters, and reprinted at their expense, before any Committee passes upon the Clauses.

51a. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation of, or in amendment of Acts incorporating Railway Companies, shall be drawn in accordance with the Model

Bill, copies of which may be obtained from the Clerk of the House.

(a.) The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill, shall be inserted between brackets, and when revised by the proper officer shall be so printed, and Bills which are not in accordance with this Rule shall be returned to the promoters to be recast before being revised and printed:

(b.) Any sections of existing Acts which are proposed to be amended shall be reprinted in full with the amendments inserted in their proper places and between brackets:

(c.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the Notice of Application for the same:

51b. No Bill for the incorporation of a Railway Company, or for changing the route of the railway of any company already incorporated, shall be considered by the Railway Committee until there has been filed with the Committee, at least one week before the consideration of the Bill:—

(a.) A Map or Plan drawn upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorised works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district, or any part thereof, which the proposed work is intended to serve, and such map or plan shall be signed by the Engineer or other person making the same:

(b.) An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking, and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities, and the amount of each, respectively.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 1,212.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Cascade Mills, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 7th day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise timber lands or timber limits held under lease or licence from the Crown or others; and to purchase or lease real estate or other property necessary for the purpose of carrying on a general shingle-mill and lumber business, and to sell or exchange such timber lands, leases, licences, real estate or property of the Company:

(b.) To carry on the business of manufacturing shingles and lumber and all log and timber products, and to erect, own, lease and operate mills and factories for such purposes:

(c.) To buy, own, sell, lease or exchange such real estate as may be deemed advantageous to the interests of the Company:

(d.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(e.) To use steam, water, electricity or any other power now known, or that hereafter may become known, as a motive power, or in any other way for the use and purpose of the Company:

(f.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and upon any such sale to divide the net profits thereof, or any part thereof, whether in cash, shares or debentures, as the Company may determine, ratably among the members of the Company:

(g.) To purchase, take on lease, or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property which may seem to the Company conducive to its objects, directly or indirectly, or capable of becoming profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's objects:

(h.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage and charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(i.) To carry on a general wholesale and retail business in groceries, provisions, dry-goods, hardware, boots and shoes and general merchandise:

(j.) To buy, sell, own, lease, charter, build, operate and maintain tug boats, steamships, sailing vessels and scows, for the purpose of transporting passengers, merchandise, lumber, shingles and timber products:

(k.) To construct and maintain houses, buildings, cottages, hotels or boarding-houses for the use and benefit of workmen and others:

(l.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company. de8

No. 1,219.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Bannockburn Mines, Limited," "Non-Personal Liability," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of five hundred thousand dollars, divided into one million shares of fifty cents each.

The Company is specially limited under section 56 of the said Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 17th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To obtain by purchase, lease, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold within the Province of British Columbia, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands and mining rights of every description, and in payment or part payment therefor to issue paid-up shares of the Company, or give other consideration therefor, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(2.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell and deal in the same, or any of them:

(3.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(4.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange or otherwise, such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights of way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying out of any of the objects of the Company:

(5.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(6.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(7.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(8.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorised to carry on:

(9.) To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(10.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest or for any other purpose to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments; provided, however, that the restrictions in this sub-section contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed imperative, and shall in nowise limit, control or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company, or of the Company, under the Memorandum of Association or the Articles of Association, or By-Laws of the Company, or under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1897," and amendments:

(11.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(12.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of the company the objects of which are restricted as aforesaid:

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To construct, build, purchase, lease and otherwise acquire, hold or own, and to operate saw-mills, planing-mills, shingle-mills, pulp-mills, paper-mills and other mills, works and plant for the manufacture or treatment of lumber, timber, pulp and all other products or by-products of wood, in all its forms and branches; to carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, timber-growers, mill-proprietors, and wood, pulp and paper manufacturers; to buy, sell, grow, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and all kinds of products and by-products of wood and manufactures therefrom; and to manufacture and deal in articles and merchandise of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber, wood or wood products are used, or which are used in the manufacture of products of wood; to manufacture and deal in building material, bricks, stone and all other building supplies:

(b.) To purchase, locate, lease or otherwise acquire and hold, and to sell, assign, let or otherwise dispose of timber limits, berths, concessions, leases, locations or timbered lands, or cut timber, logs and lumber of every description; and to cut, clear, work, operate or plant such limits, berths, concessions, leases, locations or timbered lands:

(c.) To purchase, lease, record, locate or otherwise acquire and hold, and to sell, let, abandon or otherwise dispose of water rights, water records, water and water privileges and concessions of every description, including foreshore rights, leases and privileges:

(d.) To purchase, lease and otherwise acquire, and to sell, mortgage, let and otherwise dispose of lands and interests in lands of every description; and to build, hold, sell, lease or otherwise acquire or dispose of all or any buildings, plant, wharves, ways and other erections or improvements, as may be necessary or convenient for any of the purposes or objects of the Company, including also the construction, maintenance and operation of booms, dams, aboiteaux, docks, piers, tramways, railways or other structures, and the approaches or other works necessary or appurtenant thereto; and for any of the purposes of the Company, whenever necessary, to obtain the approval, authority or licence of the proper authorities in such behalf:

(e.) To build, acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, mortgage or otherwise dispose of steamers, tug-boats, barges and other vessels of every description, or any interests or shares therein, requisite or convenient for the purposes of the Company's business, and to let out to hire or charter the same:

(f.) To establish, conduct and carry on shops and stores, and to engage in the business of merchants and dealers in any commodities, by wholesale or retail; to construct, acquire, improve, maintain, equip, work, operate, manage, sell or otherwise dispose of any roads, ways, water-powers, reservoirs, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, booming-grounds, timber-slides, electric light or power works, telephone lines, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, houses and other works, improvements or conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or share in any such operation, works, improvements or conveniences, or any object, purpose or thing hereinbefore mentioned, although undertaken, constructed, operated or maintained by any other person, firm or corporation:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person, firm or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company; to pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or both; to enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-partnership, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company engaged in any business which this Company is authorised to engage in, or capable of being conducted so as to benefit this Company; to guarantee the bonds, shares or contracts of, or otherwise assist, any such person or company, and to take, acquire, hold, sell or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any such company:

(h.) To sell, let, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any or all of the property, rights or undertakings of the Company for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; and to promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, undertaking or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose intended to benefit this Company:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire from all or any of the subscribers to the memorandum of association of this Company (notwithstanding that they may be directors of the Company) any property, rights or privileges which may be required for the purposes of the Company, without any liability on the part of such subscribers or directors to account to the Company for any profits or advantages derived by them from such purchase or acquisition, and to pay such subscribers or directors for such purchase or acquisition in fully paid-up shares in the Company:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie; to remunerate any person or company for any services rendered or expenses incurred, or to be rendered or incurred, in or about the promotion, formation or incorporation of this Company, or the placing or selling of any of its shares or securities, or the obtaining of any property, rights or advantages for the Company; to procure this Company to be registered, licensed, recognised or authorised to do business in any Province or Territory of Canada, or anywhere in the United States of America:

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Wilmer Mercantile Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 13th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the assets, whether consisting of real or personal property belonging to the mercantile business carried on at Wilmer, B. C., by George Rehder under the trade name of "The Wilmer Mercantile Co.," and to acquire as aforesaid the business and good-will and assets of every kind connected therewith, and to pay for same in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in shares or otherwise as may be agreed upon, and hold, work, manage, improve, sell, turn to account, or otherwise dispose of, or deal with the same:

(b.) To conduct and carry on a general mercantile business in all its branches; and in particular to buy, sell, manufacture, exchange and deal in (at wholesale or retail or both), groceries, provisions, produce, consumable articles and foodstuffs, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, furniture, furnishings, hardware, crockery, jewellery, miners' supplies, machinery, drugs, stationery, fruits, confectionery, fancy goods, novelties, tobaccos, wines, liquors and cigars, and any and all other articles of merchandise; and to carry on the business of commission merchants, or any other business which may be conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects for which the Company is formed; and to act as financial and insurance agents, estate agents and brokers, and dealers in all kinds of property on agency terms:

(c.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or render profitable, any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, plant and stock-in-trade:

(e.) To build, construct, erect, improve or remove any building or buildings at any place or places where the Company may carry on business or determine to do so:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To borrow or raise money or secure the payment of moneys in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's properties, present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, negotiate, issue and transfer bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, bills of lading, warrants, warehouse receipts, debentures, stock certificates and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(i.) To sell and dispose of, or otherwise deal with the assets, business, property, rights, franchises and privileges of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(j.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the rights and properties of the Company:

(k.) To establish, maintain, equip and operate branches or branch stores or offices of the Company:

(l.) To make advances in cash, goods or other supplies to other persons, firms or companies, and particularly to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to take and hold real estate and personal securities therefor:

(m.) To insure with any person, associations or company against loss, damages and liabilities of all kinds, which may affect the Company:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment and fulfilment of the above objects or any of them.

(j.) To apply for, accept, take, hold, sell, dispose of and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations or other securities of any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, as they may deem fit:

(k.) To make, draw, accept, indorse, execute and deal with and in promissory notes, cheques, bills of exchange or other negotiable instruments:

(l.) To purchase, take on lease, or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property which may seem to the Company conducive to its objects, directly or indirectly, or capable of becoming profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's objects, property or rights:

(m.) To act as factors or agents in relation to the purchase, sale, receipt and disposition of all kinds of ore, minerals and products of mines and smelters:

(n.) To enter into any agreement or agreements with any Government, supreme, local, municipal or otherwise, which may seem beneficial to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidy, rights or privileges, which the Company may deem it advisable to obtain, and to purchase any such subsidy, rights and privileges from any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, or privileges:

(o.) To sell, assign, transfer and prove, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Company:

(p.) To borrow or raise by issue upon bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other obligations or security of the Company, or to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such debentures or bonds, and such mortgage or mortgages may be in favour of such person or persons, trustee or trustees:

(q.) To carry out any of its objects, either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by themselves or through any person or company acting as an agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise:

(r.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this company, and to amalgamate, either into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on, or about to carry on, business similar altogether or in part to this Company:

(s.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects:

(t.) To carry out all the objects, purposes and business undertakings of the Company by stipulator in all of its contracts, mortgages, bills, notes, or other evidences of debt that the property of the Company only shall be responsible for the obligation, and that the uncalled up stock or assessments shall not be applied thereto to any extent:

(u.) To pay the expenses of the incorporation of the Company, and to pay commissions or other remuneration to brokers or other persons for placing, selling, underwriting or otherwise disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities or property, and to pay wages or salary for services rendered, either in money or by allotment of shares in the Company:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to law of the United Kingdom or any Colony of the United Kingdom, or any foreign country.

No. 1,217.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Monarch Hotel Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into twenty-five thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 13th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To establish, maintain, conduct and carry on the business of hotel, restaurant, cafe, saloon, tavern, beer-house, wine-room, refreshment-room and lodging-house keepers, licensed victuallers, wine, beer and spirit merchants, importers and manufacturers of aerated, mineral and artificial waters and other drinks, purveyors, caterers for public amusements generally, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(b.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(d.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, plant and stock-in-trade:

(e.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of moneys in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's properties (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(h.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(k.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANIES.

LICENCE AUTHORISING AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY TO CARRY ON BUSINESS.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CANADA :

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. }

No. 257.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that "The Canadian Oil Company, Limited" is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects of the Company to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Toronto, in the County of York, Province of Ontario.

The amount of the capital of the Company is one million dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at Vancouver, and William Henry Lewis, whose address is Vancouver, B. C., is the attorney for the Company.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 14th day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To purchase, own, lease or sell, salt, petroleum, natural gas, mineral and other lands, and erect, purchase, lease and sell refineries, salt works, natural gas works, plant and machinery:

(b.) To produce, manufacture, refine, buy, sell, import, export, or deal in crude or refined petroleum oil, mineral, fish, seal and all other kinds of oil, salt, natural gas, the products and bye-products thereof, and in all the products of petroleum, salt, natural gas, mineral and oil lands, and in producers' and refiners' supplies:

(c.) And, for any of the aforesaid purposes, to sink and put down salt, oil and gas wells, and otherwise develop oil, salt and gas-producing lands, to store tank, warehouse, transport and convey refined and crude petroleum oil, animal, fish, seal and other kinds of oil, salt and natural gas, and other products and bye-products of salt, petroleum or gas-producing lands, and to give warehouse receipts for the same:

(d.) To prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain and manage gold, silver, copper, coal, iron, natural gas and other mines, minerals and other deposits and properties, and to dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyze, reduce and amalgamate or otherwise treat ores, metals, minerals and natural gas, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to sell and otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange or other legal title, mines, mining lands, easements, mineral properties, or any interest therein, minerals and ores and mining claims, options, powers, privileges, water and other rights, patent rights, letters patent of inventions, processes and mechanical or other contrivances, and either absolutely or conditionally and either solely or jointly with others, and as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and to lease, mortgage, place under licence, hypothecate, sell, dispose of and otherwise deal with the same, or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(f.) To carry on any business which may be necessary or expedient for the consumption or economic use of the refuse, products or bye-products of any of the manufactures of the Company:

(g.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work and operate on the property controlled by the Company, railways, tramways, telegraph or telephone lines, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water powers, aqueducts, wells, roads, piers, wharves, buildings, shops, stamping mills and other works and machinery, plant, and electrical and other appliances of every description, and to buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects required by the Company or its workmen or servants:

(h.) To build, acquire, own, operate and dispose of tank cars and tank vessels, box cars and all other cars or vessels of any nature whatsoever:

(i.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate and use steam and other vessels:

(j.) To construct, maintain, alter, work and operate all necessary pipes, branches and subsidiary lines thereof for the purpose of carrying natural gas, its products and bye-products, crude oil, distilled or refined oil, or the products and bye-products of petroleum, from the points of production, manufacture, or distillation to the works and delivery stations of the Company, and the railway lines and navigable waters of Canada, and to such other points of Canada as the Company may wish to carry or convey the same for the purpose of delivery and distribution to consumers thereof:

(k.) To subscribe for and take and hold shares or stock in any other company, association, or kindred enterprise, apply for an Act of Parliament for any purpose which it may deem expedient, to promote other companies for any purposes calculated to benefit the Company, and for such purposes to pay out of the funds of the Company the costs of the organisation of such companies:

(l.) To purchase, or otherwise acquire, and undertake as a going concern or otherwise, for any of the aforesaid purposes, any other business or undertaking, or any portion thereof similar to its own, and all or any part of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities thereof, capable of being advantageously used in connection with the business of the Company, and to pay for such business or going concern, wholly or partly in paid-up and unassessable stock or shares of the Company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement or agreement for amalgamation, sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, co-operation, reciprocal concession, or other arrangement of a like nature with any other person or persons, company or companies, carrying on or about to carry on a similar business or transaction which may be of benefit to the Company:

(n.) To sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for cash, shares, stock, debentures, or securities (or partly of each) of any other company having objects together, altogether, or in part similar to those of this Company, and divide the proceeds in specie or otherwise among the shareholders:

(o.) To take, acquire and hold as the consideration for oil, salt, gas, ores, metals or minerals, their products and bye-products, or any production or manufactured articles of the Company, sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied, or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of or in any other company having objects of a similar nature: and

(p.) To do all such acts, matters and things as are incidental or necessary to the due attainment of the above objects, or any of them. del5

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows.—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending a petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.
